IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CIVIL APPELLATE SIDE

WRIT PETITION NO. 7475 OF 2006

Subhash Vidya Mandal.... Petitioner

versus

State of Maharashtra & ors..... Respondent.

Shri M.G.Gawade for the petitioner.
Shri M.H.Solkar AGP for Respondents.

CORAM; A.P. DESHPANDE, J.
DATED; 9TH MARCH, 2007

P.C.;

1. School Tribunal allowed the appeal filed by the respondent-employee and granted reinstatement with full backwages. The order directing payment of backwages also goes to recommend that the backwages be paid to the employee from the non-salary grant payable to the institution. The said order passed by the tribunal has attained finality on dismissal of the writ petition filed by the management. Thus the liability of the petitioner to pay backwages cannot be diusputed and is not being disputed. Order passed by the tribunal in execution of the said judgment rendered by it in favour of the employee is challenged in this petition.

2. Perused the judgment and order. No interference is called for with the order impugned as the same only goes to seek enforcement of the judgment and order passed earlier. Hence writ petition is summarily rejected.
